

Kansas Public Health Association

Date: 3/5/09

Kansas's leading public health advocacy association

Time: 10:00am-12:30pm

Health Day at the Capital Thursday March 5th

National Public Health Week
April 6-12, 2009 • www.nphw.org

Due to the construction at the capital displays are not allowed in the capital building. This year we will be communicating directly with health legislators about the upcoming clean air legislation and other current public health topics in Kansas.

Agenda

- 10:00-11:00 - Professional Development in Advocacy Workshop "Effectively Communicating with yours Legislator" (Preparing for talking points with Legislators - a review of the materials we will be giving them)
- 11:30-12:30 - Deliver Lunches (provided by UNICARE) to your legislator and discussion on health issues
- 12:30-1:30 - Break for Lunch (not provided)
- 1:30-3:00 - Attend the Senate Health and Wellness Committee Hearing in the Capital Building (optional)

Why should you come?

- ◆ Meet with your legislator to talk about the current health topics in Kansas
- ◆ Interact with other public health advocates across the state
- ◆ Advocate for a healthier Kansas and watch a Legislative Hearing on Health
