

Kansas Public Health Association 2020 Award Nominations

Please submit your nominations by August 31, 2020. You may submit multiple nominations. Please list your email address at the top of this form. Thank you!

The KPHA Awards Committee requests nominations for the following awards:

Samuel J. Crumbine Medal

The highest award given by KPHA is awarded for meritorious service and state, regional, or national recognition related to the improvement of the health of Kansans and/or the environment of the state. Recipients of other KPHA awards may receive this award.

Special Service Awards

For individuals who have rendered outstanding service to Kansas in the interest of public health and/or environmental improvement. Two special service awards may be given annually, one of which may be to a non-member of KPHA.

COVID-19 Special Service Award

For individuals who have demonstrated outstanding leadership to address the COVID-19 pandemic. Many of our public health colleagues across Kansas have been working tirelessly to ensure the health of our communities. This award recognizes those outstanding efforts.

Dorothy Woodin Award

This award is named for Dorothy Woodin, a long-time Kansas public health nursing leader. It is presented to a public health nurse who has demonstrated outstanding commitment to improving population health through public health nursing service and leadership.

Corporate Public Health Service Award

May be awarded annually to a company or organization which, through policy and activities, makes a significant contribution to the mission of public health and/or environmental improvement in Kansas. There is no requirement that the company or organization be a member of KPHA.

Jane Addams Award

Awarded to an individual social worker who exemplifies the qualities of Jane Addams, including a pioneering and trailblazing spirit, and dedication to improving the health of the disadvantaged and the sanitary conditions of communities.

Virginia Lockhart Health Education Award

The award is given to an individual for outstanding service in the field of health promotion and education and/or environmental issues who has demonstrated innovative and exemplary efforts in improving the health of Kansans.

Public Health Policy Maker(s) of the Year

This award is presented to a decision maker(s) who publically supported and acknowledged the importance of strong public health systems for sustaining and improving the health of Kansas communities. The Public Health Policy Maker(s) of the Year Award may be awarded annually to local, state or federal lawmakers who are public health champions. Consideration should include legislation sponsored or co-sponsored, any leadership provided in protecting public health programs and funding, policy initiatives to protect the public's health, etc.
